Below is the 6th and 7th Section of an act passed by the General Assembly of Ohio, March 23, 1840, which shall continue to be in force.

Sec. 5. That it shall not be lawful for the treasurer of state, county treasurers, collectors of tolls on any of the public works of this state, or any receiver of money for the use of the state, or any person or persons acting under their authority, of either of them, to receive as dues to the state, notes, bills, checks, certificates of deposit, or any other description of paper, whatever, calculated or intended to circulate as money or currency, of a less denomination than five dollars; or to receive as dues to the state, notes, bills, checks, certificates of deposit, or any other description of paper, whatever, calculated or intended to circulate as money or currency, which may have been issued by any person or persons, or by the act of incorporation, to issue such paper, or which is made payable at any other place than where issued, whether the place of payment be expressed in the body of such paper, or written, printed, stamped, marked, or endorsed thereon; or which is made payable at a future date, or at any other time than on demand; or which is made payable in bank notes, currency, or any thing else than gold or silver.

Sec. 7. That any person or persons mentioned and described in the fifth and sixth sections of this act, violating any of the provisions of said fifth and sixth sections, shall forfeit and pay, for each and every such violation or offence, one hundred dollars, to be recovered by any person suing for the same, in an action of debt, in the name of the state of Ohio, to be paid over by the officer before whom it is recovered, to the treasurer of the county in which the suit may be brought for the use of common schools, in said county; and every such violation or offence shall moreover be good cause for removal from office.

Counterfeit Detector.

A LIST OF COUNTERFEITS OF BANKS IN THIS STATE OHIO.

BANK OF HAMILTON, HAMILTON.

10's letter A, dated Nov. 17, 1835. Signed Woods, President. C. K. Smith Cashier. The principal defect in the engraving, is in the heads of vignette, which are less distinct than the genuine.

BANK OF GRADUA PAINESVILLE.

5's letter A, pay to—Marshall, Jr. dated May 9, 1837. Vignette—two Indians—Steamboat in the distance. Poorly executed.

BANK OF CLEVELAND.

20's altered from 1's. The figure 20 in a large die is impressed in 7 places, and very clumsily done. This Bank has never issued any $20 bills.

BANK OF GRANVILLE.

3's no letter; Various dates. Vignette, a Steamboat and Railroad Cars. On the right hand margin, an Indian figure in a standing posture, with bow unstrung.

Bank of Xenia.

5's altered from 1's. Particulars unknown.

BANK OF ZANESVILLE.

5's badly executed, the paper very thin, and the figure and seal of wheat, in the centre of the note very defective. The signature of the cashier lacks the periods at the abbreviation of Charles, and at the initial C. The note we have seen has the letter A, payable to M. L. Dugan, and dated the 8th Feb. 1838.

BANK OF MARIETTA at Marietta.

3's altered to 10's, and also to 20's, of Murray, Drapers Bankman & Co., plate, letter and date unknown. The Bank has no notes out of this plate of a larger denomination than 5's.

3's letter, payable to B. Jones, dated Aug. 10th, 1835. Signed Atlas Nye, Cashier, John M. Nye, Pres.

The small oval on the left hand margin appear to be drawn with a pen.

3's letter A, dated July 21, 1836—they can be detected by observing that the counterfeits have 4 of an inch shorter, and 4 of an inch narrower than the genuine ones.

5's various plates letter unknown, payable to H. Nye, April 3, 1813.

BANK OF MT. PLEASANT.

20's and 10's altered from 1's. The genuine ones have no vignette.

BANK OF WOOSTER, OHIO.

10's altered from 1's. Easily detected, letter A, dated April 6, 1835, Joseph S. Lake, President, Benj. Bently, Cashier, can be detected by holding them up to the light.

BELMONT BANK, ST. CLAIRSVILLE.

1's old plate, altered to 5's and also to 10's. Vignette of the genuine one, a laborer splitting a log.

5's letter B, pay J. Weir, of various dates, some May 1, 1827, and others April 7, 1828. They are exceedingly well executed, but can be detected by observing that the letter A in dollars is not crossed.

5's letter B, pay J. Armstrong, dated Sept. 10th, 1823. The A in dollars is crossed with a pen.

10's altered from 1's, pay to J. Joy, letter B, dated Sept. 9, 1829.

10's altered from 1's, letter A, pay to B. Osborn, June 6, 1819.

10's altered from 1's—letter A.

COMMERCIAL BANK OF CINCINNATI.

10's letter A, payable to John W. Wales, dated May 4th 1837, signed J. S. Armstrong, President, W. S. Hatch, Cashier, and engraved by Underwood, Bald & Spencer. The signatures are tolerably well executed. The counterfeits may be easily detected by noticing the place, the bank having issued one of this description; in the centre of the note, is a vignette of William, and Henry, and on the right and left are female figures, the former seated, holding a sheaf of wheat, and the latter standing, with a cap of liberty in her right hand. The one before us bears date May 2, 1837, and has the name of W. S. Hatch as cashier. Since October, 1835, no 10 dollar bills have been issued, subscribed by Mr. Hatch, who is not now cashier.

COMMERCIAL BANK LAKE ERIE.

2's of various dates—some dated Jan. 24, 1834, payable to H. Seymour. Engraving coarse.

5's stereotypic plate, letter M, of various dates, and payable to various persons. T. P. Handy cashier, L. Case, President. Remarkably well executed, and calculated to deceive the most experienced judges. The signatures are apparently of one hand writing, and rather stiff—first being marked out by small dots in the engraving; paper bad. Observe that the letter I in the word Directors has no dot above it.

5's the name of the Bank is finely engraved over the whole face of the note, and the 5 dollar notes, and the Counterfeit can be detected, by observing that in the fifth line, the letter s in the word "Commercial" is omitted. It is between the words "Lake Erie" on the right end of the note, and "company of the".

10's spurious—vignette—Genius of Liberty reclining on the arms of Ohio. Leonard Case, President, A. E. Handy, Cashier.

FARMERS' BANK, AT CANTON.

2's letter 1, payable to J. Land, dated November 8, 1837, the letter A, and read simply "The Farmers' Bank." Instead of "the Farmers' Bank of Canton;" on the genuine 2's there is no Steamboat.

5's Spurious—have for a view of Wagon and Horses on left end of the note—and on right end, a vignette of a man carrying a bundle of wheat on his back, and a woman carrying a bundle of wheat on her head. The vignette is very defective, and the paper is of a poor quality.

5's altered from Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Burlington, W. V. The vignette, which is totally unlike the genuine bill is a female holding in one hand a globe to an eagle. Engraved by Burton & Gurley N. Y.

5's letter A, payable to J. Wilson, dated June 6, 1840. Jno. Andrews, President, D. Moore, Cashier. The general engraving good—though the vignette "Goddess of Liberty" is coarse. Paper light and thin.

10's letter A dated Jan. 10, 1840, payable to B. Wells, signed Jno. Andrews, President, W. Spencer, Cashier. Vignette, a female with one arm resting on a plough. Paper thin and light. Engraving pretty good.

20's and 10's altered from 1's. On the left hand end of the genuine one is a view of a canal.

FRANKLIN BANK OF COLUMBUS.

2's letter S, pay A. Fish, Nov. 8, 1835. J. M. Eddy, cash G. W. Prescott, Pres. Engraving coarse.

3's letter H, dated May 10th 1833; payable to S. Jones, engraving coarse.

3's letter I, pay H. Allen, June 6, 1836, S. Lawrence, Cashier; G. Swan, Jr. President.

5's letter B pay at the "Banking House." All bills of the letter B payable at the banking house are spurious.

5's they are of the letter A, and made payable to T. P. Handy, N. Noble, E. Jones, H. P. Eddy, and probably others. The Bank has never issued any payable to T. P. Handy or N. Noble. The counterfeits which have been presented is dated Oct. 8, 1834. There are also dated. No genuine notes of this plate have been issued of the date just mentioned, nor have any been numbered above 1100 since the year 1828. The counterfeits are shorter and narrower than the genuine bills. The engraving, on close examination, is found to be coarse, particularly the vignette which is inferior in execution to the heads of Washington and Franklin, on the margin, the eyes of the Washington head, are badly imitated. The signature of the cashier is very defective. In the genuine notes there is a very slight mark, which is wanting in the counterfeits. Just over the word "true," commencing "true President, Directors and Co." in a small hand stroke, intended to be a part of the letter "P," which has the want of this, although it is very slight, is sufficient to detect the counterfeits, the word "Banking House" are not inserted in any other note issued by the Bank except the Five Dollar note of the place thus counterfeited.

10's letter A, altered from $1. Signed J. M. Eddy, Cashier; G. Swan, President.

GERMAN BANK OF WOOSTER.

5's altered from 1's. May be detected by holding up to the light, as the figure 5 is parted over the one, the letter A is also left off the word Dollars.

Lancaster Ohio Bank.

1's, very badly executed

3's letter A, dated June 30, 1839. Others dated Jan. 3, 1840.

5's signed M. Garaghy, Cashier; J. Creed, Pres. letter A; payable to W. J. Reese, dated June 26, 1839. The engraving is remarkably well executed, but the paper is heavier and of a yellowish color, and the general impression lighter than the genuine notes. They are also about a quarter of an inch longer and a little wider. Others of the same date as above, payable to S. Gill. All genuine notes which are issued payable to S. Gill, are numbered from 1000 to 5000 and the date is between 1839 and 1840, the one pays able to W. J. Reese are numbered correctly.

Lafayette Bank, Cincinnati.

10's spurious. They may be detected by observing that the counterfeits have for a vignette, a view of the ocean, and an eagle resting upon a shell, bearing the American Standard—a steamboat in the distance.

Miami Exporting company Cincinnati, Ohio.

50's old plate, letter M, dated 4th November, 1831 payable to H. Hart; Q. Spencer, Cashier; Maria Baum President, filling up and signatures engraved.

Ohio Life Ins. and Trust Co., Cincinnati.

5's letter B, pay to Lane dated November 9, 1836, others various dates, signed J. S. Fortine, Cashier, W. S. Williams, President. Paper flimsy, engraving bad and defective, signatures and filling up badly done and all in the same hand writing.

Urban Bank of Cincinnati.

2's letter A, payable to W. Ward, June 30, 1838—W. R. Ransom, Cashier, John H. James Pres, Vignette, a female figure, with one arm reclining on an eagle. Light appearance

3's old plate, dated June 3, 1833.

10's old plate, dated August 30, 1823.

Western Reserve Bank.

3's July 16, 1830.

3's pay to Wm Williams dated May 4, 1830.

3's badly executed, they are one-eighth of an inch shorter than the genuine notes—Need, engraver dated January 7, 1825.

5's no letter, payable to W. Williams, dated Nov. 5, 1829, engraving very faint.

10's letter D, Murray, Draper & Fairman's plate, the words "Western Reserve Bank" on the left, and "Ohio" on the right hand margin; on the genuine notes they are the reverse.

VOLUME TWENTY-THREE.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK

LADIES' AMERICAN MAGAZINE.

MRS. S. J. HALE and Mrs. LYDIA H. SIGOURNEY, Editors.

THE present volume commences with two Steel Engravings by A. L. Dill, signed Morning, and the Sale of the Pet Lamb Also, a beautiful colored Fashion Plate.

This is an outlay for Embellishments unprecedented in this or any other country. The great beauty of the pictures will give pleasure to every lover of the beautiful, and it shall always be our aim to procure such subjects for the engraver as will, even without the poetical illustrations, tell their own tale. While thus giving attention to that which pleases the eye, we will show that equal attention has been paid to catering for the mind. Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, who has lately returned from Europe, has made such arrangements as will ensure a supply of articles from the best female writers of England. Mary Russell Mitford, Mrs. C. C. Hall, and Maria Edgeworth, their contributions to an American Periodical, will each contribute to the Ladies' American Magazine; from the two last we have extracts on hand.

The Hon. Mrs. Norton will also be a contributor. While from abroad we are receiving such assistance as will serve to make an agreeable variety, we must not forget to mention that we are now publishing an article from an eminent writer of our own country—Little things no Trifles—The author of "Loving and Winning," and "Sensibility."

This tale we are certain will excite a great sensation, as did the publishing of "Loving and Winning," which was published in half the papers of our country.

Let it not be forgotten that Miss Leslie contributes to the Lady's Book only. [?] No other Magazine has articles from her pen. [?] She commences in this No. another of those graphic sketches that give so much pleasure to our readers, "LEONILLA LYNNMORE."

While paying a proper tribute to the great talents of the English Ladies previously mentioned, let it be remembered that we have on hand, in Miss Sigourney, Leslie, Farnham, Eubank, Hentz, and a host of others, to mention which we have neither time nor space.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK

Has been favored from the first, with a list of writers that no other Magazine can equal. It has, also, what cannot be said of any other publication.

EXCLUSIVE CONTRIBUTORS.

The list of subscribers is larger than any monthly publication in this or perhaps any other country.

THE CHEAPEST AND HANDSOMEST MAGAZINE IN THE WORLD!

ROBERTS' SEMI-MONTHLY MAGAZINE, FOR TOWN AND COUNTRY.

IS published by the subscribers, on the 1st and 15th of every month. Each number contains 40 large pages, (24 sheets) and is printed in a superior manner, after the style of Blackwood's Magazine, accompanied with an extra title cover.

It always contains all of the valuable miscellaneous matter that appears in the Boston Notion, including the popular romances of Miss F. Pauline, by Almsworth, THE POACHER, by Mayhew, and GEORGE ST. GEORGE JULIAN, by the author of "Valentine Vox." Also, all the LATEST ENGRAVINGS that appear in that paper, together with occasionally a piece of fashionable music. At the end of the year it will comprise a volume of over one thousand pages—a library in itself—and the subscription for a year is only $2 and when taken in Clubs of ten, only $1 50, or 10 copies for fifteen dollars.

The first number was published January 15, 1841, and contained part first of the popular Novels mentioned above. All the back Nos. from No. 1 can be furnished.

[?] Postmasters are authorized to receive subscribers for the Magazine.

[?] Publishers who will give the above one or more insertions, will be entitled to either the Notion or Magazine for one year. Those papers who may not insert our former prospectuses, will please omit them.

GEORGE ROBERTS, Publisher and Proprietor.

Boston, March 15, 1841.

THE PHILADELPHIA MAMMOTH.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

A new volume of this well established and highly popular family newspaper, containing ENLARGED and improved, with entirely new TYPE commenced May 1st, 1841. The paper is printed in beautiful type and has received the praise of many editors of taste, as "the handsomest family newspaper in the Union." Our efforts have been directed to the combining of beauty and simplicity with utility and taste. The Post is printed on stout white paper, rendering it neat and durable for filing. It is issued at the old established rate of two dollars per annum cash, or sent by mail in not paid in advance, and may be truly said, now that it is enlarged, to be the

LARGEST PAPER IN THE COUNTRY

at the price it would. It has all the merits, and none of the defects of the large papers of the day, for while the earliest literary matter may be found in its columns, a judicious compilation of domestic and foreign news, with the usual variety of wit and sentiment, will render it a better family paper. The proprietors make no flourish of trumpets about the size and cheapness of the paper, or the firm basis upon which the "MAMMOTH" stands. It is not necessary. It has borne the battle and the breeze for the longest TRAVELING ONE YEAR, and has faced and buried all kinds of opposition.

THE MODE OF CONDUCTING IT.

F. T. The proprietors having for a long time deprecated the floods of foreign literature, indiscriminately and collected in this country, have determined, without altogether neglecting this field, to select nothing but the choicest tales and sketches, from the English periodicals; and they have made arrangements by which they can furnish these in their subscribers in advance of every contemporary. The editors will also keep an eye to the best American tales and sketches, giving always the preference to the writers of their own country. We shall still continue the plan of giving original stories from popular American writers. The well known Author of "Crawling in the last War," opened the volume with the first of a new series of thrilling nautical tales. In addition to the old, a number of new Contributors will enrich its columns with choice and entertaining original articles. In order that the SATURDAY EVENING POST may maintain its high position, as the

FIRST FAMILY NEWSPAPER

In the United States; arrangements have been made for a regular supply of choice and entertaining historical sketches, poetry, &c. We have been publishing for months past an unbroken series of choice original stories which have been gathered at great cost, and have been widely copied and read. These we shall continue.

ORIGINAL TALES,

THE NEWS DEPARTMENT.

While it shall be the care of the proprietors to preserve for the paper, a high and reputable reputation; the great desideratum for a family newspaper, a carefully selected news department, shall not be made second in interest or importance. While every thing of note that is passing either in this country or in Europe shall be carefully collected and collated for our readers, a due regard shall be paid to the character of the matter. So that the paper may be both interesting and properly introduced and read in the family circle.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

will still be preserved, which is choice and select, and shall be ceive strict attention. It shall be the effort of the editors of this department such selections of the floating literature of the day, as may be in an especial manner adapted to the instruction and amusement of the female sex, and couched in the most fashionable and the truly useful and good.

Such things as may suit that important and large class of our subscribers.

THE FARMERS.

will not be overlooked. In order to gratify, as much as possible, the laudable desire of our readers, a portion of our attention will be devoted to the collection and diffusion of such news as may seem IMPORTANT TO AGRICULTURALISTS, and the population resident without the confines of our great cities.

The state of the markets and the fluctuations in the prices will be regularly, and what is of more moment, correctly given.

We determined at the outset, that while the paper continued under our control it should be strictly.

NEUTRAL IN POLITICS

and that as news, and literary journalists, we had nothing to do with the matter; this determination has been strictly and rigidly adhered to, and while we shall continue to give our readers, such public documents, as may be deemed of interest to all, and such a history of the progress of political events, as are strictly in keeping with our duty, and the character of the paper, we shall studiously and thoroughly avoid any contamination of partisan politics.

THE TERMS.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, will be furnished at the exceedingly low price of TWO DOLLARS per annum, invariably in advance. We will send a copy to any person who may wish to see a specimen, by giving notice, POST PAID.

INDUCEMENT TO CLUBS.

As friends and neighbors often wish to club together to facilitate remittances, we will send

We have no desire to extend our list but with cash subscribers, and the paper is sufficiently established to enable us to exact compliance with this golden rule. The Post is made worth more than the money, and it must be paid by those who wish the paper.

To those who wish to subscribe, we would say, that the safest plan is to enclose the money in a letter and direct to us, Most Post Masters will frank their letters if relating to nothing but the business of the office, and all post-masters who will be kind enough to do so we shall be pleased to acknowledge as agents.

EDITORS who may wish to exchange, will please copy, and forward a number of their paper, marked with ink to the office, and their favor shall be promptly acknowledged without fraud or delay, as is but too often the case.
